formation of the service the following correspondence in regard to the conduct of Sorgeant John H. Quick, U. S. Marine Corps:

U. S. Marine Barracks,
Navy Yard, Washington, D. C.,
November 25, 1598.

Sir: I. In obedience to Articles 896, having reference to Articles 896, having reference to Articles 896 and 897, Navy Regulations, I have the honor to report as follows:

2. Sergeant John H. Quick, U. S. Marines, in Cuba, distinguished himself in battle, showing gallantry under the following circumstances:

3. Two companies and a half under my command, on detached duty, were engaged in an offensive fight on June being engaged were kneeling or lying down, occupying the sharp crest of a hill; the enemy (at this stage of thight) were in the valley, but were one cealed by bushes. It was doemed advisable to signal the U. S. S. Doiphin on three occasions, asking that she would throw shells into the valley, etc., in order to make the enemy move so left or what we could see to shoot them, they have concells from the workner of Parls. You will receive a warm welcome to their opening, even the valley, but was found impossing to the Cubans. After a trial of the could see to shoot them, they have could seen to shoot them, they have concells from the crest of the hill, so that the flag would show against the sky. Sergeant Quick on each occasion stood fairly on the crest of the hill, so that the flag would show against the sky. Sergeant Quick on each occasion stood fairly on the crest of the hill, so that the flag would show against the sky. Sergeant Quick on each occasion stood fairly on the crest of the hill, so that the flag would show against the sky. Sergeant Quick on each occasion stood fairly on the crest of the hill, so that the flag would show against the sky. Sergeant Quick on each occasion stood fairly on the crest of the hill, so that the flag would kneel and fire.

4. Personally, I think of no words that express his action so well as that it was beautiful.

5. I respectfully recommend that Sergeant Quick be granted a medal, of such a class as the Honorabie Secretary of the Navy may see fit to adjudge.

Very respectfully.

France, according to reports received here, has met with wonderful success with her submarine craft, and is now engaged in the building of a dozen, so certain are the naval officials of the complete utility of the vessel. At a recent trial this craft, appearing about 500 yards from the warship Magenta to take aim, sank before the gunners of the big ship could train their pieces and appeared about 300 yards nearer, when, according to one account, it accomplished the extraordinary exploit of sending a torpedo in an absolutely straight line between the funnels of the battleship.
